David Stilp was born on Oct. 22, 1947, in Watertown, the son of David and Yvonne (Denney) Stilp. Dave married Georgia-Ann M. Smolinski on Dec. 21, 1974, in Our Saviors Lutheran Church in Oconomowoc. Dave served in the Air Force band from 1970 to 1974 as part of the marching, Dixieland, and jazz bands. He graduated from UW-Whitewater with a Bachelorâ€™s degree in music, followed by two Masterâ€™s degrees in music from University of Illinois and UW-Whitewater. Dave taught elementary and high school music for 37 years at Parkview School District, retiring in 2012. In Daveâ€™s spare time, he enjoyed geocaching and logged over 3,100 caches. He also wrote songs for his elementary band and wrote 2,000 recorder songs. Dave passed away on December 13th, 2015 and is survived by his wife, Georgia; two sons, Steven (Kristin) of Madison, and Michael (Melody) of Atlanta; two grandchildren, Freya and Gavin.

This is pretty much exactly what I needed. I've played soprano recorder for most of my life, but have only played alto for a few years. It's nice to have these exercises to help build up a different muscle memory. These are difficult enough for a musician who is serious. The downside is the slightly small print on the pages. I have a hard time seeing them on my music stand unless I sit very close, which makes it difficult because I'm holding an instrument in front of me. Still, I would buy the books in this series.

Beautiful collection of music! Very nice quality book. Can't wait for more from this composer!
