Elements Of Trial Practice: Hundreds Of Techniques And Tips For Trial Lawyers, Second Edition

Synopsis

An invaluable guide for the trial attorney. To win at trial, you must present your case clearly, simply, persuasively, and fairly, while you undermine your adversary's case in the same manner. Achieving excellence in trial advocacy is a lifelong pursuit. Nevertheless, trial skills and a basic understanding of this art can be learned, beginning with this book. Short and persuasive, this book wastes no words. You will discover how to select a favorable jury, prepare your witnesses, deliver powerful opening statements, conduct an effective direct examination, cross-examine any witness, introduce exhibits, impeach their witnesses, control consulting experts, and win the case on summation. Elements of Trial Practice, Second Edition will become your essential, instant-access reference for trial. This new edition includes expansions, revisions and updates. Armed with its many valuable techniques, you will approach trial practice with new enthusiasm and confidence.
