Customer Reviews

Tim Allen's book is simple, straightforward and brimming with good, sensible recipes in the Irish style. There is everything from soups to cakes, from tasty starters to scrummy desserts. Personally I love cooking, so I shall be trying out some of these recipes immediately: I currently live in Russia where are grown the best potatoes in the world, so most of Tim's dishes will be extra delicious!

Exciting recipes! My Mom and her Mother were both Irish and always had a wish to visit but age, poverty and illness didn't let them. This is a very interesting book. Each recipe is preceded by a little story about it. They are well written and very easy to follow. Not all ingredients will be in your near by store but she provides you with places to try. The weights and measures are in ours. The recipes make your mouth water and you read through them. I have found my mother and grandmother both cooked Irish recipes the way the lower class or even the farmers would have done. This cookbook is really worth purchasing!

This is such an awesome book! Honestly, I was intrigued by what are commonly eaten in Ireland as I have an Irish friend. This cookbook helped me familiarize what kind of food I will like if I visit Ireland someday. So far after trying some of these recipes, I have enjoyed some recipes. Would definitely try the other recipes soon.

A couple of new recipes in the kitchen collection. It remains only to cook.
