Customer Reviews

As with the Herodotus Histories I am finally reading all the letters of Pliny the younger. It is an amazing view of the Roman world and this great person. Very satisfied with it, am almost finished reading it.

A nicely illustrated and navigable volume. Great if you're looking for a quotation or background source for research into the era.

For anyone who wants to study about the lives of the ancient Romans and the politics this would be a must read. I have found some very interesting innuendos, intrigue, and machinations of the Roman counsels, politicians, and businessmen as well as the sincere and heart felt commentary among Pliny's friends and business associates. It gives a very personal view of the lives and interactions of the Romans during his time, the pride they have in their families and the beauty of their villas.

Been wanting to read this for a good many years.

The pieces are good in that they are so ancient, well-written and thoughtful.

I am thoroughly satisfied with this purchase.

Good book
