So worth the money. Has everything I needed.

good quality and content. delivery timely.

The book was in great condition and very helpful. The forms were just what I needed at this time in my life.

Get her Will kit! It comes on CD Rom, along with a fabulous instructional CD! Great coworker gift to prepare a healthcare directive, simple Will and Durable Power of Attorney for your coworkers and family members, single moms, etc.! I always ask my friends, coworkers and family members, "If you were ever in a coma, or if you were hit by a semi tractor trailer on the highway & there's an $18 million settlement, who would you want to make a decision at the hospital when the doctors ask, or receive the $18 million settlement?" I have prepared the simple will, durable power of attorney and healthcare directive for ALL of my family members and coworkers. When people say, "Oh, I'll get it done on my own", I always ask, "How old are you?" When they answer, I say, "Okay, so in [45] years, DID you get it done?" The answer is always no! So then they want me to go ahead and help them get these simple documents done. I LOVE this kit! It's a money maker, too. If you can type, you can make money. I find that anyone will pay me $20 to get these documents done, too! They're so simple - just fill in the blanks! I'm a notary. Just pay a $75 year bond (google search notary bonds), ordered a $15 notary stamp (google search & order it online) and completed a form for Secretary of State. Grab any 2-3 adult people around who do not benefit from the Will to sign as witnesses, and it's done! No legal advice needed - you're actually just a word processor typing a simple Will and Durable Power of Attorney & Healthcare Directive. Suzie's already paid an attorney $1,000s to write all of these documents - you don't have to reinvent the wheel. It's not rocket science! The law is, anyone can write their own Will. Smiles, Annie (ex-paralegal to a former Judge. When I asked him, "What if I don't really have anything to leave -- Why would I need a Will?" He answered, "The problem is, you don't know how you will die. You can be hit by a semi tractor trailer on the highway and there's an $18 million settlement. Do you want 1/3 to 1/2 of that to go to the State just because you didn't have a simple Will, or do you want the whole $18 million to go to your children and loved ones?")

This will assist you and save you countless hours and money. I would recommend this to anyone that needs a low cost Will.

Suze has helped me prepare a will and be a better financial planner for my future.

great price for a very useful product. I never expected to be able to get anything like this. there is so much more in the package than the description indicated.
