Customer Reviews

As with my comments on the Machzor for Rosh Hashanah, I purchased the Kindle version of the Yom Kippur Machzor so that I could adjust the lighting and font size during the service on either my tablet or my iPad. As a Jew-by-Choice, the transliterations directly opposite the Hebrew help me when I stumble over the Hebrew and the English translations are more true to the Hebrew than in previous Reform Machzorim. I also find the topical guide (or Table of Contents) on the right margin helpful in navigating the service as the layout is different from previous Machzorim I have used. The commentaries and reference materials included are informative and enjoyable and add to the holiday kavanah.

This book (sidur) is a gem. Use it at Yom Kippur, or just sit with it quietly and read some of the passages in it. It is obvious that an unimaginable amount of care and thought have gone into every aspect of this book.

My wife is partially blind and has great difficulty reading the printed version and keeping with services or even just exploring. The electronic copy can be enlarged making it much easier for her to read. I'd recommend this to anyone

A little too contemporary for my taste but was usable

All expectations were met

Same as the regular book, but easier to manage with my choir books.

Been waiting for over a year. Great addition to library. Big print for regular price. I'm grateful for kindles. So is hubbie
