Room With A View (Classics)

Synopsis

Nothing compares to the moment when, after arriving in a foreign city, the hotel room's drapes are drawn back to reveal the world outside; a world that, neatly if barely contained by the window's geometry, seems to belong to you alone. Condé Nast Traveler's "Room with a View" column, featuring frame-worthy vistas from all over the world, has been whetting the appetites of armchair tourists for twenty years. This compendium gathers the most breathtaking sights of all time, from Balinese beaches to Asia's bustling metropolises to African savannahs teeming with wildlife rather than nightlife. Take, for instance, the bathtub vista from the Royal Park's Urban Spa room in the 971-foot-high Yokohama Landmark Tower, or Room 609 at Badrutt's Palace Hotel, the perfect box seat for the Cartier Polo World Cup on Snow, played on the frozen Lake of St. Moritz below. Room with a View presents 160 of these stunning photographs that, along with the magazine's concise commentary, are sure to stoke the imaginations of even the most seasoned travelers.

Conde Nast Traveler is a prominent luxury travel magazine.

This book is just one beautiful picture after another. As readers familiar with Conde Nast Traveler know, the last page of every issue is a picture out the window of a hotel somewhere in the world. This has been a feature of the a magazine for over a decade. The book just compiles them. The pictures are mostly very beautiful. There is little text to speak of. It's a very good coffee table book that will whet your appetite for travel..

A wonderful book with great pic's and description of the most over the top places to stay with world class views.

Absolutely perfect for coffee table!

Photography is amazing. Enjoyed the book very much. Received shipment in timely fashion and it was in the condition that was advertised.

fabulous photo book, make you wanna travel all the time all over the world. very nice hard cover, excellent packaging, fast shipment.

The book is everything that you would expect from Conde Nast---I want to go to at least 3 more of those rooms after I retire! I have been to one of the rooms---page 48, I believe--and have seen the views (but not from the exact room) of 4 or 5 of the wonderful shots. I love this book!

Awful awful awful.I couldn't wait to receive this book....so disappointed. The pictures were not even as good as one's I can take. When you look thru this book you are simply not "wowed" as you normally would be by beautiful pictures.Dull...drab...you think of the word...I showed it to my gf...she easily agreed. She even told me I take better...and I use a digital camera.I sent it back yesterday.It definately is not the book you expect to open and enjoy over and over again.Sorry....my CNT magazine has nicer pictures.

I recently received a copy of Room With A View as a gift and what beautiful book.I was also excited to see AndrÃƒÂ© Aciman had written the introduction. After reading his new book Eight White Nights I love his style.Very well done!Dennis
