Untouchable (Private Book 3)

Synopsis

Cheating, partying, blackmail, and now...murder? Can the Billings Girls remain untouched? Reed's boyfriend, Thomas Pearson -- the popular, easygoing, irresistibly handsome and charismatic boy she fell in love with -- is dead. No one knows how it happened, and everyone is after the truth. Or are they? Life at Easton Academy begins to feel very different. Taylor is acting like the poster child for Prozac, Kiran is spiking her cornflakes, Noelle is being kind of...nice, and Arianna keeps floating along as if nothing has happened. Thanksgiving break arrives and Reed and Josh find themselves alone on campus. They are forced to confront the feelings they've been hiding. Those feelings combined with an empty campus result in the hottest hookup Reed could possibly imagine. But when Reed breaks the news about Josh to the Billings Girls, there's no fun game of tell-all. Instead, Josh begins to look like suspect No. 1 in the murder of Thomas Pearson. The perfect life Reed has constructed as a Billings Girl begins to crumble. And as everyone becomes more convinced of Josh's guilt, Reed's private suspicions lead her somewhere she doesn't want to go.

surprising this series just keeps getting better and better. It is so hard to actually put it down. I wonder if there are really girls who are this catty and manipulative in the real world....What am I saying, of course there are. I just can't imagine sometimes with the things these girls say and do. I definitely get my fix with these books though. I was so happy when Reed started sticking up for herself in this book. In the last few, she kind of disappointed me with the way she always gave into what Noelle and the other Billings girls wanted her to do but she actually went against what Noelle said several times in this book which. I am starting to like Josh, maybe even a little more then do I dare say it... Thomas.. Why was she even with him? Especially when he was dealing drugs, and then what he did to her at the party.. Thomas murderer is arrest. It wasn't who i thought it would be

This series is really good if you are into teen romance and drama. There is always something going on and you are constantly at the edge of your seat wanting to know what happens next. The book was very clean and nothing wrong with it. Cover is actually very soft in my opinion. Very good choice. :)

I love this series! They are great, filled with drama! This book was even better than the other two I have read!!!!

Amazing. So much unexpected drama and intense moments and reactions from the main characters. This book is like the mom of the series Pretty little Liars!! Next book here I come-Confessions!!!

Loved the books

This was a breath realigning, exhilarating novel! I can not wait to read the next book, and finish off this series. The only bad part was that the book left you wondering on the very last word!

Purchase as a gift for a friend's daughter. She enjoys the book/magazine.

Kate Brian's series is about a private school, Easton Academy, in Easton, Connecticut where a girl, Reed Brennan leaves her small town Croton, Pennsylvania life and her drug addicted mother and her loving father to attend this school on a scholarship. The first book was the introduction into the Easton Academy and how Reed managed to move into Billings House which reminds me of a cult or a sorority. She becomes a Billing House girl now but it's not that easy. When I finished this book, I was amazed that she ran away from Croton High School to a private, expensive, stuffy academy of rich girls who feel unloved by their own parents but are spoiled beyond belief. The students at Easton act like adults and should take punishment like adults as well. I felt that Reed was becoming one of Noelle's followers at the Billings House. This series sends a negative message to it's readers by having Reed conform to her new friends and their lifestyle of excessive living. While I find Kate Brian's writing easy and entertaining and more interesting than the premiere book, I get the feeling that this book is send the wrong message to it's female readers about school life in general. For about 90 percent of them, they are not attending private boarding schools and they are not going to have their lives. I just kept wondering why Reed after what happens in this book would want to stay at Easton. Sure, it would be easy to go home and face your mother but the characters in this book all have unsavory sides to them. You don't know who's telling the truth or keeping secrets. While it might happen at Croton High School, she would have at least her father and brother as support.
