I pastor small churches and I have to select the music. I like having all four lectionary entries on one page. A list of hymns, praise songs, anthems and solo suggestions and I like the visual reminders for each passage. I can quickly read ahead and look for patterns and possible dramas and specials. Visual indicators are like: storm, bed, dreamscape, dance, will, jewelry box, smile through tears, leapingI just wish it cost less. I think $20 is too much, 10 years ago it was $12. My salary has not changed and I doubt their cost has changed so why a 60% increase?

I have used this as a worship planning resource for several years, but I recently purchased extras for the whole music team. The accompanist especially appreciated it because he wants to select music for the offertory, prelude, and postlude that compliment the whole service. This, he said, is a great help.

Needed for Work!

I love these planners!

I'm a part of a ministry team and I fill the pulpit once a month for two churches. I love having this planner with me, so I can look at the scriptures and plan my bulletin without carrying several resources with me. I'll order one every year from now on!

Thanks

have used these music and worship planners for years. provides a strong starting point from which to work planning worship. it's organized for a UM setting, but could be a helpful resource for others as well.

We use this every year to help plan the music for each of our services. It works well for us.
