Ladyboy Amy

Synopsis

Amy Amore is regarded as one of the most beautiful ladyboys in the world. She is extremely popular, and every day there are thousands of searches for her online. Admirers on blogs, forums and Facebook continuously ask questions about her life. Here you can take a rare and privileged look into her private life. Spend some time and observe how Amy talks and interacts with the people around her. Discover the real Amy and get to know her personally. Follow an in-depth and personal interview where she reveals some of her innermost thoughts and feelings about her life; past, present and future. Highly intelligent and assertive, she talks about her tough upbringing, her authoritarian father, relationships, abusive encounters, health issues, pornography and the risks of working in the industry. During the interview she unwittingly reveals how she is able to consistently overcome challenging situations. Furthermore, while following Amy's life, the author takes a thoughtful, deep and serious look at the phenomenon of ladyboys and makes observations about the wider subject. He also attempts to analyse the motives of those who find themselves attracted to ladyboys, taking the reader on a journey into their psyches and revealing some of their deepest motivations and fears. With sensitivity, compassion and humour, the book will help you gain an invaluable insight into Amy's thoughts and feelings, but also introduce you to aspects about ladyboys' lives which the casual observer will never have considered.

Customer Reviews

My main criticism is that Amy's voice was such a small portion of the book.. The author had some good thoughts and seemed to be familiar with the subject of ladyboys, but I was more interested in Amy's life and experiences and insights. As much access and time he had with her, I would have expected much more of her presence in the narrative. Amy was a great subject for the book, don't get me wrong, but I didn't feel I knew very much about her at the end. I do understand that it's a book touching on a somewhat famous person and not a bio. For anyone with more interest about the nitty-gritty, I'd suggest "Ladyboys: Inside the Secret World of Thailand's Third Sex." It gives the complete stories of several ladyboys in very different circumstances. P.S. If the author does another book, I'd be willing to read over for grammar and typos at a quite reasonable rate. I noticed a few of those -- nothing glaring, IIRC, but as an English major a few things were obvious.

SHE IS A VERY BEAUTIFUL LADYBOY THAT ANY ONE THAT IS LOOKING TO BE HOOKED UP WITH HER, WOULD NOT BE DISAPOINTED

Knowing nothing about ladyboys, I was intrigued by the interview with the famous Amy Amore. Her life has been difficult and her future is uncertain, but the author treats the subject with compassion and humor, giving us an insight into the kind of life that most of us are unaware of. Amy is quite a character, and her story is both funny and sad. I'd like to read the next chapter of her life...
