Synopsis

Key West and the Florida Keys were a favorite vacation spot long before Hemingway was fishing the waters and Jimmy Buffett introduced Margaritaville. Millions of people flock to tropical destinations each year with the promise of paradise only to find themselves left out in the cold. You can avoid the pitfalls of paradise simply by reading this book. Key West 101 grabs the bull of paradise by the horns with humor and wisdom, storming headfirst into 101 elements that make Key West one of America's favorite playgrounds. Chock full of historical tidbits, island anecdotes, witticisms and fun facts, Key West 101 is packed with useful information and the Sloan / Shultz style of humor that has become synonymous with Key West. It has been said that paradise is a journey, not a destination. Key West 101 will start your journey with a rolling laugh. About the Authors: David L. Sloan and Christopher Shultz are living your dream. Since quitting their corporate jobs and moving to Key West they have become synonymous with the tropical lifestyle and attitude. Bought and read this before my first trip to key west and I discovered many things while there that the book had recommended for me. A must read for anyone going to Key West for the first time.

Book was okay. Not real informative but the seller was great.
