Customer Reviews

Once again Ms Callaghan brings us a wonderful, fun story. The series is very good...can't wait until the next one comes out. I love that the main characters are not twenty-something with just sex on their minds. And I love that there is depth to this story as well as with the rest of the series. Very enjoyable!

I love this series, and I only wish HopeWrote as fast as I read! Of course, she is writing 3 or 4 series at the same time , and I enjoy reading them too.Keep up the good work Hope, and let's get the Captain and Millie married soon! Time for those two to go for the gold.ThNks for another good read!

The Siren of the Sea cruise ship was going to dock in Miami for a week while they upgraded and improved the ship. All members of the crew had duties to perform while getting the ship done. Millie Sanders Assistant Cruise Director and Captain Nic Armati became engaged with some problems. True to form Millie became involved with helping her friend Brody who was threatened and hurt by someone. So Millie and her friends decided to investigate who was behind this. Lots happen to get Millie and friends in trouble. As usual Millie is in the middle of things.

I absolutely love this series. The characters come to life for the reader. Ms. Callaghan never disappoints. I have read all of her books and impatiently await the next. If you haven't read her books, you are in for a treat. Thank you, Ms. Callaghan, for hours of reading enjoyment.

Really enjoyed reading this great Millie Sanders mystery. The only thing wrong was that it was too short! As with all books that I really love is the fact that I always wish they were longer like I feel when vacation ends!! This is a really good book that Weill make you want the whole series! You'll enjoy it!!

Cruise Ship Mystery Cruising for A Bruising- 9 Hope CallaghanWhile the ship is getting retrofitted for new things and having somethings done to it, Millie and her friends are trying to figure out who hurt one of their friends. With all sorts of rumors going around about the ship, and Captain Armatti, Millie is worried about everything. Can she save the day once again!

This series gets better with each installment. There's a lot of improbability with regard to how people tolerate Millie's various misdemeanors and actions, but overall, it's not horrible. I like the light touch, yet sincere Christian references and Bible quotes, they are never overdone or out of context and I find them, for the most part, inspirational.

The books by Hope Callaghan are fun. Just light-hearted fun to sit down to. Purely relaxing entertainment with clean language and no explicit sex scenes.
