Customer Reviews

"A great book with instructions on how to cut and arrange flowers in unique patterns utilizing creative containers." — Phoenix Home & Garden
"This visually stunning book is a piece of art itself." — Northern Gardener Magazine

Mark Welford and Stephen Wicks are owners of Bloomsbury Flowers in Covent Garden, London. Author's of DK's Flower Arranging, they supply bouquets to the Royal Opera House as well as many other famous clients.

Good coverage of flower arranging from basic containers to essential equipment, floral selections, etc... I especially liked the guides provided outlining needed supplies for each arrangement from flowers to filler. The easy step-by-step directions are extremely helpful. The book's quality (photography) is excellent. Great selection of ideas from which to choose.

This is a beautiful book with some fantastic floral designs in it! I'm a professional florist and am very picky about my floral books, as soon as I opened this book, I knew It would be going on my shelf!

Just as Welford's previous book for DK on floral arranging, the photos are excellent. The arrangements are very attractive, and there is something here for everyone's taste and any occasion.

I am sending this back because the book did not have very many good arrangements and was not easy to understand instructions - more pictures than instructions.

This is a great book for quick, easy gift ideas or to make a bouquet at home. Very inspiring.

Not really helps much since there is no step by step to follow with pictures illustration. I am disappointed.

The only book you'll ever need to make beautiful flower arrangements. Everything is spelled out perfectly.

I love it
