Customer Reviews

Deep Cover Jack - The hunt for Jack Reacher - These are really silly books, refuse to read any more. They are NOT Reacher books, and the two investigators are so boring.

Special FBI Agents Kim Otto and her partner, CarlosGaspar are still on the trail of Jack Reacher. They are sent to Houston, Texas to find ATF Agent, Susan Duffy. Susan is a known associate of Reacher and they want to interview her to hopefully get answers. But it seems SusanÃ¢â€¢s whereabouts is unknown. While searching SusanÃ¢â€¢s apartment, the agents run into a former partner of hers. Hearing a recording on the answering machine of a woman in distressing, they determine Susan headed to a place unnamed Abbey Cape outside of Portland, Maine. Off they go!! Now the intriguing adventure beginsÃ¢â€¢. There is plenty of suspense, thrills and chills with unexpected twists. The tension was thick and well-sustained with a colorful array of interesting characters. This is the seventh book in The Hunt for Reacher Series but can be read as a stand alone. Enjoyable, exciting read!! Thank you to the author for this eBook. My opinion is my own.

This is just awful and a disgrace to the Jack Reacher series. The characters are over-hyped. The characters are 'cut and pasted' from other books it seemed. The midget heroine doesn't look at her watch - she looks at her 'Seiko'. They are not searching for a 4WD they're searching for a RAV4. She doesn't pull a gun she takes her 'Glock'. It seems at least Seiko and Toyota are sponsoring this book if not Glock. It starts to grate after the first 2 mentions of Seiko. Why has Lee Child allowed this bloodsucking?

I think these books should be written as In the Shadow of Jack Reacher, this would have been a good book if it just stood on its own rather than using the character of Jack Reacher to develop the plot. I'd never read another one but its light entertainment for people who feel "Too much jack is never enough" in any ones hands.

Plot very slow to develop. Too much in the way of discussions amongst the characters. Very slow moving. Reacher did not appear in the book, but was merely mentioned throughout. This is a pathetic attempt to capitalize on the popularity of Lee Child's Jack Reacher character. Sorry I wasted my time.

YOU JUST WANT IT TO END.

Another gripping and intense novel by Diane Capri with Otto and Gaspar searching for the elusive JackReaper. Will Otto and Gaspar find him? If so, what will the relationship between Kim and Jack develop into? Each chapter brings forth more questions...what's coming next. Diane, you have an amazing way of arranging thoughts into words, words into sentences, sentences into paragraphs, paragraphs into pages, pages into chapters, chapters into novels, and novels into so many hours of very enjoyable reading. Diane is so gifted in knowing the subject matter of her novels and has a way that captivates your mind in her descriptive pages from start to end. I Can't wait for the next book in this series. Mary A. Walter Diane Capri has penned another enjoyable installment in the Hunt for Jack Reacher series. Thank you to Lee Childs for encouraging Diane to produce this extraordinary series which follows two FBI agents in their quest to find Jack Reacher for their boss. I enjoy seeing Jack Reacher from their perspective. This book introduces a new character, ATF Agent Branch. Hopefully, he will turn up in a subsequent book. I highly recommend this book and this series. The writing is detailed and entertaining.
