Without telling Tyrese, she buys a secret apartment. And they're not the only ones with problems in love. Tyrese's brother Tariq had an affair that almost cost his love Lorelei her life. And Lorelei's brother dove into an ill-advised affair with a church sister. With confusion all around, Kayla's close to giving up hope. But she holds onto her faith, hoping help will come. Can prayer, a senator's wife and a TV talk show be enough to bring these marriages back to the glory God planned for? Find out in this emotional yet inspiring romance by Shannon Gardner of African American Club.

Customer Reviews

This is a continuation of the series of Christian romance novels that captures the trials and tribulations we go through. The beauty of our faith, love for one another and a strong faith, belief and relationship with Almighty God helps us to meet adversity and come out holding fast to the love and counsel of the one who holds our lives-God. Thank you Shannon very much I thoroughly enjoyed this book.

That true love for that person helps you to see them in a different light when things go wrong. The characters show that as Christians we must realize that we are human and we will make mistakes, but we must consider God in all our ways.

I loved it it was realistic and helpful to my marriage it helped me really know where I was with my husband

I have read every book in this series. And every book had me in anticipation waiting to read the next. I've really love reading them because it is (they are) CLEAN Christian books about the lives of people in the church and out.
