This is such a neat book with full color beautiful illustrations throughout just like the one on the cover. Each page has a creative way of making a maze of a Bible story. It includes a nice title, a description of how the maze is linked to the story, the Bible reference, a beautiful picture with the maze, and at the bottom a little encouraging lesson or principle. I am totally satisfied and delighted with it. I have chosen to slice the book up, put each page in a sleeve protector, and put it in a binder so that I can pull individual pages out for children to do at church or for my son to do at home with a game pawn or a wet erase marker. My son enjoys them, and so do my children at church. I am currently trying to figure out how I can turn each of these mazes into a "game board" and do some other activities with them. I have purchased the other workbooks in this series for the P-K level and like them all. I have put them all in the same binder with all the pages in sleeve protectors. Now, on Sabbaths, I have a go-to resource of beautiful, reusable activities that my son can do that ties in skills he is working on for his schooling with Bible principles and stories. At church, when children get there early, I use these types of activities to keep them quietly occupied until it is time to start our group circle time. I call it my "Anytime Binder."

my 3 year old loves to pull this out to do his "school" whenever his sister pulls out her homework

I think this is a pretty good first maze book. I would use it for as young as age 3. All the mazes are in color. I thought the images were well done. The book does show images of Jesus if that is an issue for you. The book can be reused as long as you don't write in it. I usually have kids use their fingers to trace the path. The only issues are the mazes are not in chronological order and at times the choice of the image/saying was a tad odd. I think they put the mazes in order from easiest to hardest which is why its out of order, but no one is going to teach these topics in the manner presented. Overall, I am pleased with the book and will use it, but its a little too unstructured for me. This is what themes each maze has:- Matthew 2 - Get the wise men to baby Jesus- Exodus 9-11 - Get Moses to the Promise land and shows images of the plagues- Luke 17 - Have the leper reach Jesus to thank him for healing him- Luke 2 - Get Pregnant Mary to Bethlehem- Luke 19 - Help Zacchaeus get down from the tree to be with Jesus- Luke 18 - Help the children reach Jesus- Jonah 2 - Help Jonah out of the big fish- Luke 2 - Help the angel proclaim Jesus's birth to the shepherds- Genesis 8 - Help the dove reach Noah to give news of dry land- Matthew 18 - Help the shepherd find the lost sheep- Genesis 37 - Maze is on Joseph's colored coat- I Kings 17 - Help the raven feed Elijah- Genesis 3 - Maze on the snake (odd to me)- Luke 15 - Help the prodigal son get home- I Kings 3 - Follow the path to Solomon's wisdom (odd to me)- Ephesians 6 - Help the boy put armor of God on. (but does say what each stands for)- Exodus 2 - help rescue Moses- II Samuel 2 - Maze is David's crown- Genesis 9 - maze is a rainbow- Luke 5 - help fish get into net- John 6 - help the boy get to his basket passing 5 loaves and 2 fish.- Joshua 6 - help crumble Jericho- Luke 15 - help find the lost coin- I Samuel 16 - maze is David's harp- Luke 2 - Help Jesus' parent find him in the temple- Matthew 28 - Help women find risen Jesus- Exodus 14 - Help cross the red sea- I Samuel 17 - Help David get 5 stones to fight Goliath- John 12 - help people reach Jesus on Palm Sunday- Matthew - help calm the storm by crossing the sea (very very odd)- John 11 - Help the sisters reach risen Lazarus- Luke 10 - help the Samaritan reach the inn with the injured Jew.
