Customer Reviews

I visit often Milan for business, and I often have one or two days free between meetings. I found this guide very useful in planning what to do during one of these days: going to a beautiful place on Lake Maggiore without having to bother to rent a car and drive in the crazy Italian traffic. The guide gave me very clear indications of what public transportation was available to me to get to Stresa through the Borromean Islands from Milano, and I could handle the trip without problems, taking trains, ferry boats, boats and again trains to go back to Milan: everything is explained in a very detailed way, I couldn't make mistakes. The restaurant reviews, linked to Tripadvisor, were also very useful in deciding where to have lunch.
