Fun twists and turns in the plot that the reader chooses as the adventure unfolds

My son loves history, so when I saw this series of books, there was no question, that I was going to get some of them for him. He is enjoying reading them so much ! He can choose between several characters and many different situations, that put him right there. I highly recommend these to anyone who wants to have their child feel like they are right there, living it.

I bought this for a small group of kids taking a 7th grade history class. I enjoyed the book tremendously but it wasn't such a hit for my kids; every day is a new day and something new was what we needed.Â Â Westward Expansion: An Interactive History Adventure (You Choose Books) (You Choose: History)

All the books in this series are awesome. My students love for me to read them aloud and they vote on the paths that we take. We go back and read all of the different outcomes. This is a great, fun way to teach major historical events!

This book is perfect for when my class has finished their morning work, and we still have five minutes before leaving the room for a special. They are riveted to the story. The options are voted on, then we go back to try the other decision. These 10-11 year olds give it two thumbs up!

Love the way it teaches kids about the west

My class thoroughly enjoyed reading this book and still talk about it!

The fourth graders were really excited when reading in partners and they asked for more time to continue the activity later on.
