Customer Reviews

Maryanne Lincoln began hooking rugs and dyeing her exquisite wool in 1964. Soon she was known as an expert colorist and a leading authority on color and dyeing. Associated with the McGown Teachers Workshop for years, she taught at camps and workshops around the country. She served on the Rug Hooking magazine editorial board and wrote a regular column, "Recipes from the Dye Kitchen," for ten years. She passed away in 2013, but her devoted followers are pleased that her legacy and recipes live on in her comprehensive body of work.

Best book on dyeing.

Comprehensive. Very good resource.

Very good information for experienced and beginners rug hooking fans. It is a very good guide and plenty of advices and tips.

Great book!

Maryanne Lincoln's Comprehensive Dying Guide is a must have book for the beginner or expert--It teaches the beginner how to dye and encourages the expert to experiment with the dyes. It also shows how to get all the colors of wool you would ever need using just 4 dyes.

Anyone involved in rug hooking or wool work will find learning to dye wool is the next logical step to producing unique results - and one of the most essential parts of making finished products outstanding. Colorist Maryanne Lincoln has written articles on dyeing for over 10 years: her lesson formulas appeared bi-monthly for over 10 years in Rug Hooking magazine, and are gathered here in a reference explaining each step. Any involved in wool dyeing should consider the Comprehensive Dyeing Guide to be an essential reference which is packed with color images and coverage of a wide variety of methods.

This book provides valuable information for anyone wanting to dye wool. While it is geared toward rug hooking, the dyeing information is valuable for any craft. To use the book you only need to buy five different colors of dye.

This book is about dyeing with Pro-Chem acidfast dyes, NOT the Jacquard or Fiber reactive dyes...just an FYI...
